

Policy

INCOME FROM FEES, FINES, CHARGES

All charges to the elementary students shall be kept at a minimum. Materials used by students in art, industrial arts, and home economics in projects that are to be taken home may be charged to the students. No student shall be caused to suffer embarrassment because of financial inability to participate in any activity or project under control of the district.

The business administrator shall ensure that funds collected as fees or fines are properly recorded and safeguarded. The Superintendent shall be responsible for funds donated by the Parent Teacher Association to the school and also those generated by student activities that are deposited in the local bank.

The board on recommendation of the superintendent shall approve reasonable charges for admission to admission to school-sponsored events.

The board authorizes the imposition of fines for the loss, damage, or defacement of textbooks and other instructional materials. The superintendent shall oversee preparation of a schedule of fines for lost or damaged textbooks and/or equipment. The same schedule shall apply to nonpublic school students who lose or damage textbooks loaned to them.
